

➤ Course Introduction to E-Government Summer term 2025 Kick-off exercises

Vera Spitzer and Matthias Hartmann
vesp91 | mhartmann@uni-Koblenz.de

Agenda

- ❖ Formalities of the exercises
- ❖ Modus operandus and schedule

Aims of the exercise on Introduction to e-government

- ❖ Deepen the knowledge / contents of the lecture and apply them on practical projects of e-government
- ❖ Information and exchange among students in the elaboration of the exercises
- ❖ Joint discussion in the exercises of problem descriptions and challenges
- ❖ Hints and discussion of basic aspects shaping e-government developments
- ❖ further expectations?

Foundations

- ❖ Exercise classes \neq Lecture classes
- ❖ Lecture classes
 - Teaching knowledge by the expert along a presentation
- ❖ Exercise classes
 - Supervised but self-organized deepening of the knowledge and contents of the lecture classes by the students along the teaching materials and exercise tasks

Agenda

- ❖ Formalities of the exercises
- ❖ Modus operandus and schedule
- ❖ First task

Modus operandus for each exercise

- ❖ Distribution of weekly exercise tasks in openOLAT one week before on Mondays
 - Subjects from the lecture in relation to selected practical projects
 - Submission of the presentation file in the group folder on Sundays evening after handing out the exercise task
- ❖ Elaboration and presentation of these tasks in groups (max 4 persons)
 - No written elaboration
 - Only presentation to be uploaded to openOLAT at the latest on Sundays before 23:59 max
 - Only those that have uploaded the exercise elaboration in due time are entitled to present on Mondays
 - Only those that present and contribute to discussion receive points
 - Other students provide comments and contribute to the discussion of the presentations

Modus operandus for each exercise

- ❖ Each group can choose to present their results
 - Each presentation may be max 8 minutes
 - Followed by max 9 minutes of discussion
 - Max 5 groups can present on one exercise slot
- ❖ Only team mates that are present and that present their works will receive points for the admission to the exam
- ❖ Introduction and discussion of new task by the supervisor

Exercises and presentation schedule

- ❖ Date: Mondays, 16:00 – 18:00 hrs in Room K101 and A308
- ❖ Max. 4 Persons in a group
- ❖ Only groups who have uploaded their presentation in time on Sunday before are entitled to present their exercise responses
- ❖ Each student needs to contribute successfully to at least three presentations to get admission for the oral examination

Requirements for Admission to the Oral Exam

- ❖ Successful elaboration and presentation of weekly exercise tasks
 - At minimum three presentations must be successfully given by the students in the exercise classes
 - Team work is important, every team mate has to contribute to the presentation and discussion
- ❖ Submission of at minimum 6 exercise tasks by the group to openOLAT
- ❖ Submission is digital through openOLAT, using PDF
- ❖ Powerpoint or PDF format only for presentations

Slides and additional material –use of openOLAT

<https://olat.vcrp.de/auth/RepositoryEntry/4883873841/CourseNode/87461933117835>

- ❖ Use of OpenOLAT, an e-learning platform for
 - Access to the materials for the lecture (PDF of slides and some relevant literature)
 - Subscription to exercise groups
 - Collaboration in exercise groups
 - Submission of your presentations for the exercise
 - Posting any relevant questions on the module via the forum
 - Subscription to a date for the oral exam (will be opened in early July)

❖ Password for course:
EGOV_Summer-2025!

Will be visible only in late June/
early July ->

 Intro2eGov2025
 Lecture
 Exercise
 Subscription to exercise
 Forum
 Oral Exam

Schedule of exercises

Date	Lecture	Subject of presentation (max 6 groups per date)	Handing out exercise subject
14.04.2025	Introduction	-	-
28.04.2025	Foundation	Kick-off Exercise	Exercise 1: E-Government projects
05.05.2025	Strategies	Presentation Exercise 1	Exercise 2: Strategic placement of projects
12.05.2025	Portals	Presentation Exercise 2	Exercise 3: Front end / Web portals / apps for the public service in the project
19.05.2025	Interoperability	Presentation Exercise 3	Exercise 4: Interoperability and Standardization in projects and legal demands
26.05.2025	OOP – SCOOP4C	Presentation Exercise 4	Exercise 5: OOP
02.06.2025	TOOP – SDGR	Presentation Exercise 5	Exercise 6: TOOP & SDGR
09.06.2025	No lecture/exercise	Public holiday
16.06.2025	Legal Aspects	No exercise	Exercise 7: Legal Grounds
23.06.2025	Legal Aspects - OZG	Presentation Exercise 6 and 7	Exercise 8: OZG
30.06.2025	Benchmarking	Presentation Exercise 8	Exercise 9: Benchmarking the project
07.07.2025	Presentation Exercise 9	and Flipped Classroom

Communication via Forum

- ❖ If you have any questions regarding lecture or exercise, kindly use the forum if it is not a personal matter
- ❖ Personal matters: use my E-Mail
 - vesp91@uni-koblenz.de (Group A)
 - mhartmann@uni-koblenz.de (Group B)

Thank you for your attention and good success with the module!

... your questions!